

Descriptors

To be recognized at any level the practitioner must have all the skills at that level. Practitioners at any level may have additional skills from higher levels but this does not mean that they are operating at that level.

- A Students; First Aider (management of an unconscious, bleeding or arrested patient). Certificated by a non national organization.
- B Nationally certificated first aider (qualified to meet statutory requirements within the work place) Holds EFAW, FAW, D13 standard or similar

Levels C to H will be operating within a framework of governance and CPD

- C Nationally certificated advanced first aider. i.e. FPoS Basic, D13 Standard/Module 3 police officers
- D Nationally certificated non health care professional pre hospital provider caring for patients as a secondary role. i.e. D13 Enhanced certificated police officers, Fire Service IEC. Several types of UKSAR trained personnel.
- E Nationally certificated non health care professional pre hospital provider caring for patients as a primary role i.e. may give medication. i.e. More specialist UKSAR trained personnel, some military personnel and some D13 Specialist certificated police officers.
- F Non registered health care professional – i.e. Ambulance Technician, CMT1 etc.
- G Registered health care professional working in pre hospital care
- H Advanced registered pre hospital care practitioner