

Diploma in Mountain Medicine Learning Schedule

Certificate Level (Combination online and face to face) – based on UIAA Curriculum

Learning Event	Student Learning Hours (600 in total)	Description of learning	Assessment	Approximate Due Dates for Assessments
Induction Module (online)	60	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • General preparation for the programme • Specific reading/activities as preparation for module 1 • 2 exam questions 	All activities and reading compulsory. Feedback from teaching staff (formative and summative assessment)	Early December
Module 1 (face to face and online)	100	Face to face teaching and activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Practical clinical assessment of skills – Primary Survey (summative assessment) • Post module 1 assessment – 4 written essay exam questions (summative assessment) 	Primary Survey – at module early December Theory 1 Written Assessment end January
Pre-Module 2 (online)	60	Specific reading/activities as preparation for module 2	All activities and reading compulsory. Feedback from teaching staff (formative feedback)	Early March
Module 2 (face to face)	60	Face to face teaching and activities	Practical assessment of navigation (summative assessment)	Navigation – at module early March
Pre-Module 3 (online)	60	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Specific reading/activities as preparation for module 3 • 2 exam questions 	All activities and reading compulsory. Feedback from teaching staff (formative feedback)	Early May
Module 3 (face to face and online)	100	Face to face teaching and activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Practical assessment of navigation (summative assessment) 	Navigation at module early May

			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Post module 3 assessment – 4 written essay exam questions (summative assessment) 	Theory 2 Written Assessment end June
Pre-Module 4	60	Specific reading/activities as preparation for module 4	All activities and reading compulsory. Feedback from teaching staff (formative feedback)	Early September
Module 4 (face to face)	60	Face to face teaching and activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Practical assessment of mountaineering skills (summative assessment) • Practical assessment of clinical skills (summative assessment) 	Assessment of Mountaineering and Clinical Skills – at module early September

Diploma Level (Online)

Learning Event	Student Learning Hours (600 in total)	Description of Learning	Assessment	Approximate Due Dates for Assessments
Pre Module 5 Face to Face Event	10	Preparation for diploma level study and independent research	Activities and workshops (participation and formative feedback)	Late September
Module 5 – Research Methods	140	Introduction to fundamentals of mountain medicine research	Development of a research proposal (formative and summative assessment)	Early January
Module 6 – Best Bets Literature Review	150	Production of a clinically relevant mountain medicine review using Best Bets methodology	Completion of Best Bets review (formative and summative assessment)	Early April
Modules 7-8	150 (X2)	Self-directed project (X2)	Project write-up (X2) (formative and summative assessment)	Early June and September