

Tuesday 5th March 2019
PHEM/HEMS Programme

09:00 09:40	Mental Resilience in Major Incident	London Fire Brigade.
09:40 10:20	Field amputation: when and how to do it.	Professor Sir Keith Porter Univeristy Hospital Birmingham
10.20 10.50	COFFEE
10:50 11:30	Mechanism of Injury - Implications of new vehicle design	Dr Gareth Davies London's Air Ambulance
11:30 12:20	HEMS Organisation Leadership - Striving to be better than yesterday	Mrs Jane Gurney CEO, Essex and Herts Air Ambulance Trust
12:20 13:20	Lunch
13:20 14:00	Learning after traumatic death.	Professor Guy Ruddy Chief Forensic Pathologist East Midlands,
14:10 14:50	Prehospital fracture dislocations: a prehospital guide to safe reduction.	Mr Ash Vasireddy Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon, King's College Hospital, London & HEMS Doctor EHAAT.
14:50 15:20	COFFEE
15:20 15:30	Successful Mentorship in PHEM/HEMS Systems	Dr Adam Chesters A&E Consultant Addenbooke's hospital, London's Air Ambulance
16:00 16:40	PHEM delivery in France	Matt Beardmore HEMS Doctor, Midlands Air Ambulance
16:45 17:30	Plenary Session	