

Tuesday 5th March 2019
Expedition, Remote & Wilderness Medicine Programme

09:00 – 09:20	What Kills you in the mountains	Dr Tom Yeoman Clinical Fellow in Anaesthetics, Critical Care and Mountain Medicine Chesterfield Royal Hospital
09:20 – 10:00	Suspension Trauma	Gwyn Griffiths Paramedic and Expedition Medic
09:40– 10:20	TBC	Dr Charlotte Haldane Pre-Hospital Care Magpass Air Ambulance
10:20 – 11:00	Local Anaesthetic Blocks in Remote Medicine	Dr Ben Clark Specialist in Pre-hospital Emergency Medicine
11:00 11:30	COFFEE
11:30 – 12:15	Interesting Expedition Cases	Dr Suzy Stokes Consultant in Emergency and Pre-hospital Medicine Oxford University Hospitals
12:15 – 13:00	Can we solve a trillion dollar problem with data? –How biosensors, data and AI can tackle the grand challenges in healthcare and transform medicine in remote environments.	Dr Jack Kreindler Physician, Technologist Founder Medical director, CHHP The centre for health and human performance, London
13:00 14:00	LUNCH
14:00 – 14:45	TBC	Sir Sundeep Dillion
14:45 – 15:30	Recent Advances in Frostbite Management	Professor Chris Imray Consultant Vascular and Renal Transplant Surgeon University Hospital Coventry and Warwickshire
15:30 – 16:00	COFFEE
16:00 – 16:45	Psychological Resilience in Pre-Hospital Care	Dr Matthew Walton FY1 Doctor St Mary's Hospital Twitter: @drmattwalton
16:45 17:30	Plenary Session	